

Go digital with your new ID card.

It's the easiest way to keep it handy.

Let's walk through a few options for making the most of your benefits.

Log in or register on My Highmark.

My Highmark is the easiest way to manage your plan. If you've already created an account, just log in at MyHighmark.com or in the My Highmark app. If you're new to My Highmark, registering only takes a few minutes.

- Use your member ID to create a username and password.
- Verify that it's you via text or email.

Stay connected with digital tools.

My Highmark gives you access to all your plan details, right from your phone or laptop. You can:

- Update your communication preferences anytime under Account Management.
- Get helpful plan information by text or email.
- View your ID card in the app for easy access.

Switch to a digital ID card.

Going digital means:

- Easier access.
- Less clutter in your wallet.
- A more eco-friendly option.

To make the switch, go to Communication Preferences under Account Management in My Highmark. Once you opt in, you won't have to wait to receive your card in the mail. It will be available online or in the app anytime.

Understand what's covered.

Understanding what your plan covers helps you make more confident care choices.

In My Highmark, select Benefits to:

- Track your deductible and out-of-pocket spending.
- Check estimated costs for upcoming visits based on your plan.
- See how prices compare if you stay in-network.

Save by staying in-network.

When you use in-network providers, you protect yourself from unexpected costs. In My Highmark, select Get Care, then Go to Provider Search to:

- Look up doctors, specialists, or facilities.
- Compare details like location, availability, and expertise.
- Schedule appointments and estimate costs through the search tool, if available.

Prioritize preventive care.

Routine checkups and screenings help catch issues early and keep you feeling your best. Your primary care provider (PCP) plays a key role in guiding your care — find yours in My Highmark by selecting Get Care, then Go to Provider Search.

If you can't find the answers you need, select Support in My Highmark to send a message to Member Service, or use our Chat feature for quick answers. You can also call the number on the back of your ID card.
